

AAC/AT Mentors

Name	Credentials	Specialty Area	Contact Information	Location
Wendi McMillan	M. Ed., CCC-SLP	Serves children with significant disabilities; medically fragile; some adults with AAC devices in place; experience with school policies and procedures	MCSAACspeech@aol.com	Piedmont
Grace O. Williams	M. Ed., CCC-SLP	Serves adults and school age children with developmental disabilities	aacgwilli@aol.com	Eastern
Sally Simpson	CCC-SLP	Serves adults with developmental disabilities	sally.simpson@ncmail.net	Eastern North Carolina
Laura Lewis	M.S. CCC/SLP	Serves preschool to high school age children with developmental disabilities, autism, cerebral palsy, and other diagnosis with emphasis on augmentative/alternative communication and other areas of assistive technology	llewis1@wcpss.net pir8fans@hotmail.com	Triangle Area
Elizabeth Motteler	M.Ed./CCC-SLP	Serves adults and children with developmental disabilities, neurogenic disorders and spinal cord injuries	emotteler@ncatp.org	Eastern North Carolina
Sheila Bridges-Bond	Ph. D., CCC-SLP	Serves adults and children with disabilities requiring possible AAC/AT	bridges@nccu.edu	Triangle Area

Disclaimer-NCACA will not be held liable for the information or suggestions received by individuals who have volunteered as mentors.

Judy Bailey	M.Ed., GMU Project Director/ICON Community Services, INC	Support workers in adult services for persons with complex ongoing support needs, including autism, to learn about augmentative communication methods and to implement communication supports, including use in person-centered planning and positive support plans	JudyBailey@aol.com	Virginia
Debbie Reinhartsen	Ph.D., CCC-SLP	Participates in interdisciplinary team assessments of individuals ranging in age from infancy through school age; low, mid, and high tech devices; a variety of disorders including autism, intellectual disability, CP, rare diseases	Debbie.Reinhartsen@CDL.unc.edu	Triangle
Joyce Wulf		Parent support	bwulf@carolina.rr.com
Robin C. Gillespie	M.Ed., CCC-SLP	Development and maintenance of culturally sensitive AAC systems both low and high tech	rgillespie@nccu.edu	Triangle
Michele Chandler	Teacher	Mentor to other EC teachers who want to incorporate AAC use into their classroom	chandlm@gcsnc.com	Piedmont
Lynn Blumenthal	SLP	Develops communication displays/strategies to work with students who are not verbal or have limited communication skills; works with low tech and high tech AAC devices.	Lynnb@triad.rr.com	Triad

Disclaimer-NCACA will not be held liable for the information or suggestions received by individuals who have volunteered as mentors.

Paula Justice	AT Specialist	Serves children with disabilities and AAC/AT needs	paula-justice@abss.k12.nc.us	Alamance County
Shelby Kennerly	AT Consultant	Expert knowledge in assistive technology	skennerly@ncatp.org	Western NC
Anna W. Smith	MA, CCC-SLP AT Specialist	Expert in implementation of AAC in the schools; supporting the needs of students with physical and intellectual disabilities and autism	annaslp@windstream.net	Mecklenburg County
Karen Plasschaert	EC Teacher	Implementation of EC services in the schools	kplasschaert@randolph.k12.nc.us	Randolph County
Rebecca Showman	CCC-SLP	Visual strategies and low tech communication devices	Rebecca.Showman@ncmail.net	Western NC
Mary Linda Watson	CCC-SLP	Adults with developmental disabilities	Mary.L.Watson@ncmail.net	Western NC

April, 2009

Disclaimer-NCACA will not be held liable for the information or suggestions received by individuals who have volunteered as mentors.